

CHOOSE YOUR OWN PERSONAL WEDDING LOCATION

Registry Office

The Town Hall usually is the convenient choice because it includes a casual ceremony suitable for most couples who want a practical approach. Wedding ceremonies in the registry office on Bornholm can be performed in English, Danish and German by a local registrar. You are also given the choice between having the wedding ceremony inside the town hall ceremonial offices or outside in the beautiful garden.

The Town Hall is located in Rønne, within walking distance of the ferry and several hotels.

Nature or Any Place of Your Choosing

You won't find a more romantic backdrop than the one provided by Bornholm's diverse nature. We have beaches, cliffs and forests on offer to match exactly the setting that will make your wedding unique. Nobody knows Bornholm better than we in Wedding on the Rocks and your personal wedding planner will work with you at all times to find 'that' special place just for you in the stunning surroundings.

In case of rain, we will set up a 3x3 meter wedding gazebo at your chosen location.

Erichsens Gård

Erichsens Gård is an old town house built in 1806 right in the center of Rønne. Nowadays, Erichsens Gård is a museum offering a very special atmosphere. The manor inside as well as outside is still kept in the style of the 19th century and is surrounded by a romantic, fragrant flower garden. You will be able to choose between having your wedding rites performed in one of the stylish rooms or in the impressive courtyard.

In case of rain, it will always be possible to move the ceremony indoors.
